Bladenburg. Aug. 16th 1864.

Mrs A. C. Clemson. Madam

I received your note stating that you did not understand my note of yesterday. what I meant by the balance of Ten dollars & a half. was on the last weeks part - I wrote Mr. Lee word. that I charged him one dollar & Twenty five cents per day and he did not object to it. he had my Horse six days. which is Twenty dollars. the regular price for saddle Horse is Three dollars per day - he had her Ten days before. he paid me any thing and that was the Ten dollars & a half. balance that I put in he only paid me Ten dollars - and he kept her six days after which makes Ten more.

Respectfully -

Geo. D. Traupner

Ten-dollars. is my bill.
